

Arivia S.A., owner of the brand Violife, member of Upfield, is the world's leading vegan cheese company and a leading proprietor of plant-based dairy and dairy-free products, exporting in 60+ countries worldwide.

Do you wish to be part of a fast-growing company? Do you share our deep belief that plant-based nutrition is the future? Do you potentially see this vacancy as an opportunity to develop your career within a global leading organization?

In Arivia S.A., based in Drama, we are looking for a Mechanical/Electrician/Automation Engineer for Internship for 2 or more months.

We are looking for a university student of Mechanical/Electrician/Automation Engineering or a related field of study.

Key responsibilities:

- Monitor and collect data on current pack & raw materials suppliers' complexity and propose optimization.
- Investigate pain points within the process and develop solutions to resolve conflicts and inefficiencies.
- Communicate with other departments within the organization to identify efficiency issues, develop solutions.

Do you have high expectations for your career and are looking for the right opportunities? Do you have a team spirit, strong communication skills and problem solving ability?

If you want to make an impact where it matters, apply now!

Your information remains confidential and is used exclusively by our company. Your CV will be kept in our database for one (1) year in case of future use for the same or another position in our company.

